GREAT PERSONALITY!!

This incredibly cute little boy is Rocket, a 3 year old Lhasa Apso, who is ready to launch into lots of fun, games and love with you! He is so cute with his perpetually joyful smile, happiness -- and kisses! Rocket was very matted when he came to the shelter, so the shelter gave him a big haircut so he feels a lot more comfortable now. With his fur long or clipped, Rocket is adorable! This little lover is just 16 lap-size pounds. Rocket will love snuggling with you as much as he loves strutting out on his leash for walks and fun explores with you. He walks very well on his leash. He is good with the shelter's other small dogs too, although Rocket prefers a home without children. Rocket is a young, animated little boy, perfect if you are active too and he can join your activities as a family member! Come meet Rocket and fall in love with his good cheer and fun personality!
