

Education Policy & Politics

What's at Stake for Students with Disabilities

Monday September 21, 2015

4:00pm-5:15pm

Join the VCU School of Education and the Department of Special Education and Disability Policy for a round-up of federal policy issues that have an impact on students with disabilities, their families, and those who educate them. The session will include a broad overview of federal disability policy and highlight key laws that have an influence on early childhood, preK-12, and post-secondary education for child and youth with disabilities. Included, as well, will be a look at federal policy related to teacher preparation. There will be plenty of time for questions as well as information about VCU's new doctoral program, Research to Disability Advocacy (RDPA).

To register for this FREE webinar follow the link below:

https://events-na3.adobeconnect.com/content/connect/c1/1005431686/en/events/event/shared/default\_template\_simple/event\_registration.html?sco-id=1623021974

Presenters will include:

Michael Gamel-McCormick, Ph.D., Associate Executive Director for Policy and Research, Association of University Centers on Disabilities

Jane West, Ph.D., Education Policy Consultant

Colleen Thoma, Ph.D., Professor and Department Chair, Special Education and Disability Policy, and Counselor Education, Virginia Commonwealth University